1 A.S. Advocate General, Chris Rebert

Hi,

As your newly appointed Advocate General, my primary duty is to keep track of the unexcused absences of voting members of the Council. In the interests of accountability and transparency, a copy of the current absence tallies, based on the Clerk’s records, is attached. Anyone with unexcused absence(s) should have already received a form email from me informing you of them and the relevant regulations concerning absences.

As a reminder, missing a roll call counts as half an unexcused absence, and if you accrue three unexcused absences, I’m required to file for your impeachment. To remind you before things get that far, I’ll send out a notification email every time you accrue an unexcused absence. Remember that the Speaker can excuse you beforehand if you have good reason.

It is also part of my duties to sanction anyone who brings alcohol or drugs into the A.S. offices, so if you happen to see any there, please bring it to my attention.

Finally, again in the interests of accountability, I have proposed a minor change to the Standing Rules to correct the anomaly that Senators currently aren’t technically required to attend Senate meetings.

If you have any questions, please email me at crebert@ucsd.edu
